Russell Lockwood Leadership School Grant Request

Recognizing the excellence of Russell Lockwood Leadership School, the Mountain Desert District Board has allocated money to support congregations sending leaders to RLLS this summer. The board wants as many congregations as possible to benefit from this resource. We are confident that the combination of excellent information and deep inspiration will sustain our congregational leaders through the important work of congregational governance. We hope that the congregations will plan to send leaders regularly.

Charles Scholz, President of MDD

Grants to subsidize the tuition of congregational leaders or to defray the cost of transportation will be evaluated based on the following criteria.

- As fair share with district assessment payments (3/4 paid by 3/31/09)
- More than one person is registered.
- The congregation is making a contribution to individual tuition
- Activities and initiatives in the congregation need effective leadership
- Earlier dates of registration will have priority if other standards are equal

Assistance may be available for a single participant from a congregation that has not participated recently. Grants will be awarded to the congregation for support of the individual participant costs. Congregations must arrange any appropriate reimbursements to members attending.

Please mail completed forms by June 1 to:

RLLS Registration is lower if submitted before May 15. Grants will be awarded based on the lower registration amount. Later registration fees will be born by the congregation.

Assistance received for a participant who fails to participate in RLLS will be refunded to the District.

If you have questions about this scholarship program you may call Nancy Bowen, District Executive at 303-726-9676.
